

I oppose the lessening of current ownership restrictions on television, radio, and print media. i urge the fcc to either uphold or lessen the 35% cap on station ownership so that media access can be made more available to a diverse array of owners and opinions.